Spring Bed for Sale in Frankfort
GOLDEN PATEENT. This is an entirely new application of spiral springs to beds, making decidedly the most comfortable, neat, and cheap spring-bed ever offered for sale, adjusted to every description of bedstead. We believe it entirely useless to go into detail relative to the advantages of this bed, having entire confidence in the durability of the material, and the want of any other offer to attract it to any bedstead, submit it to trial, to the satisfaction of any person, at the extraordinary low price of $4.50, and, if, after trial, it proves unsatisfactory (so it away, refund the money, and replace old but torn as we found it.

Weekly Yeoman.—We will furnish the Weekly Yeoman during the session of the Legislature at 75 cents the single copy, or ten copies for $5. The Weekly will contain a full synopsis of each day's proceedings, besides all the current news of the day.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.—The Message will be published in the Yeoman of to-morrow morning. Copies of the paper containing it can be had on application at the office.

ORGANIZATION OF THE TWO BRANCHES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—The House met at 12 o'clock, M., yesterday, and after the members were sworn in, the following nominations, previously agreed upon in the respective caucuses of the two parties, were made, viz:

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

For Speaker.—Hon. DAVID MERIWETHER, of Jefferson.

For Clerk.—CLINT. MCCLARTY, of Davies.

For Assistant Clerk.—Col. ROBERT S. FORDE, of Hardin.

For Sergeant at Arms.—W. N. ROBE, of Fayette.

For Door-keeper.—ANDERSON GRAY, of Grayson.

OPPOSITION NOMINATIONS.

For Speaker.—THOMAS H. CLAY, of Fayette.

For Clerk.—THEODORE KOHLIASS, of Clarke.

For Assistant Clerk.—CHARLES E. NOURSE, of Nelson.

For Sergeant at Arms.—JOHN M. TODD, of Frankfort.

For Door-keeper.—JOHN M. GAYLE, of Frankfort.

The Democratic nominees were all elected upon the first ballot by a party vote. The Speaker, Hon. David Meriwether, is well known as a gentleman eminently qualified for the position he is called upon to fill. He has had years of legislative experience, and has filled many of the most honorable positions under the Federal and State Governments. He has been time and again a member of our State Legislature, was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1849, Secretary of State under Gov. Powell's administration, United States Senator in 1852, and Governor of New Mexico during President Pierce's administration.

Clinton McClarty was Clerk of the House at its last session, and adds experience to his other qualifications.

Col. Forde was a clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington during the Pierce administration, and has had good training to qualify him as Assistant Clerk of the House.

Mr. Robb held the office of Sergeant at Arms at the last session, and gave general satisfaction.

Mr. Gery ought to know all about the duties of his post. For three successive terms, 1853, 1855, and 1857, he represented his county upon the floor of the House, with credit to himself and his constituency, and there can be no question as to his making a faithful officer in the same body.

The Senate met and organized at the same hour with the House. The proceedings of that body regularly made out will be found in another column. The Democratic nominees have all been elected by a full party vote, as follows:

Speaker pro tem.—Hon. THOMAS P. PORTER, of Woodford.

Clerk.—BEN. SILBY, of Oldham.

Asst. Clerk.—J. H. JOHNSON, of Fayette.

Sergeant at Arms.—MORGAN B. CHINN, of Frankfort.

Door-keeper.—THOMAS PEARCE, of Henry.

This is the first time in a number of years that the Democracy have had the control of the Senate, and as a matter of course, the newly elected officers are mostly untried men, but we believe they will in the end prove themselves fully competent and give general satisfaction in the discharge of their respective duties. The distinguished gentleman who has been elected to preside over the deliberations of the Senate in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor has had considerable legislative experience having served in both branches of the General Assembly. He is the only Democrat who ever represented this District in the Senate, and his election in 1857 over Hon. A. K. Marshall will be remembered as one of the most brilliant and extraordinary victories that has marked the onward progress of Democracy in this State since the advent of Know-Nothingism. With such talents, experience, and luck as he possesses, we think it an impossibility that he should fail to make one of the best presiding officers that the Senate of Kentucky has ever had, or at any rate the most popular one. As one of his constituents we congratulate him upon his promotion.

We were present at the caucus held by the Democratic members of the House of Representatives yesterday morning. The vote upon the first ballot for Speaker stood: For White, 25; for Meriwether, 21; for McElroy, 12. Upon the second ballot Meriwether received 31 votes and White 27 votes. Mr. McElroy, under the rule, having been dropped. The nomination of Mr. Meriwether was then declared unanimous.

Of Mr. Meriwether we have spoken elsewhere. Dr. White, as is well known, was Speaker of the last House. He is a gentleman of great personal popularity, of fine attainments, and if elected, would have made an admirable Speaker. It will be remembered that in the canvass succeeding the last session, he was greatly abused, in common with other Democratic officials, by the Know-Nothing press and orators throughout the State; but his course was endorsed by the overwhelming majority which the Democratic State ticket received in that canvass, and more recently by being returned to the Legislature by the voters of his own county. Although he failed to obtain the nomination for Speaker at this session, yet the large and flattering vote he received shows the high esteem in which he is held by his Democratic friends, and is a further rebuke to the Opposition party who assailed him so mercilessly in the canvass of 1858.

Mr. McElroy is an old and experienced legislator, a lawyer by profession, a man of talents, and well qualified to preside over a deliberative body. His name had not been long used in connection with the office. The Democracy were fortunate in having so many of their number competent to fill the station worthily. There were others besides those we have mentioned who would have made excellent Speakers. We are gratified that the proceedings went off harmoniously, and that everything augurs well for the future.

We were not present at the caucus held by the Democratic members of the Senate; but we learn that everything was conducted with the utmost harmony. There was a fine array of names before the body for Speaker pro tem. Mr. Porter, as we have elsewhere stated, received the nomination. Messrs. Grundy, Cissell, and Glenn each received flattering votes, and any one of them would have adorned the chair of the Senate. On the last ballot the contest was between Messrs. Porter and Grundy.

COMMISSIONER.—A. Frank Brown, of Bourbon, and Lage Arnold, of Owen, have been appointed Aids to the Governor with the rank of Colonel.

By a private letter we learn that Dudley Walker, Esq., Senator from Ohio and Muhlenburg, is detained by business, and will not reach the city before about the 10th.

We learn by private letter from Covington that Senator Fisk is still confined to his room by indisposition, and will not probably be able to take his seat in the Senate before some time next week.

ARRIVED.—Senator C. J. Walton, who was absent at the opening of the Senate yesterday morning, arrived in the city last night, and will take his seat this morning.

The Legislature of Georgia has passed a law disallowing capital executions in public; also a law to punish with death a white person who shall induce a slave to commit an act for which the slave would suffer death.

The term of Gov. Wise expires the first Monday in January. He has disposed of his estate in Accomac; and will locate himself permanently near Richmond. Hon. Jno. Letcher will enter upon his duties as Governor of Virginia, at that time.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—There are nine members of the next Congress whose seats are contested. Of 237 members elected, 115 were members of the last Congress. The member who has been conscientiously elected for the longest period of any one in Congress is W. E. Cobb, of Alabama. There is only one Smith in Congress; four Davises; three Washburns, all brothers, and quite a number of instances of the same name being held by two different members.

Our readers are referred to the law card of John E. Hamilton, which will be found in another column. Mr. H. is an industrious, energetic young gentleman of fine legal attainments, and those who entrust business to his hands may rely upon having it promptly attended to.

STANTON'S REVISED STATUTES.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Sam C. Bull, who is agent for the above valuable work, and who also has for sale a large assortment of law and miscellaneous books.

The members of the Senate and House of Representatives are requested to call at the Agricultural Rooms, over the Governor's office, and get copies of the first volume of the State Agricultural Report.

PRIZE LIQUORS.—We call the attention of strangers and others, to the advertisements of Gray & Todd in another column. They have for sale a superior lot of liquors of all kinds; among which is some six year old whisky, which we have heard universally praised by all who have tried it. They have a large lot of this whisky on hand, and will furnish it to those in want of the article at low prices. They also keep for sale a lot of superior cigars, tobacco, and fine groceries and confectioneries of all kinds.

Democratic meeting in Rockcastle.
At a Democratic meeting held at the court house in the town of Mt. Vernon, on the 28th Nov., 1859.

On motion William W. Smith was called to the Chair, and James Eastham, Esq., appointed Secretary; after which the following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That although we are weak in numbers in the small county of Rockcastle we are strong in the Democratic faith, and will stand by the principles of Democracy, and will be able in spite of all Opposition and other political factions combined, to maintain the constitution of the United States and preserve the Union.

Resolved, That the Democratic party is the only true national party that has the power or will in view of their principles to preserve the Union.

Resolved, That the combination of the odds and ends of all other political parties, factions, and fanatics into the form of an Opposition party, having no other end in view but to put down the Democratic party, and thereby destroy and trample the constitution under foot, and sever the Union, should be looked upon by all Union-loving men with contempt and disdain, and painted at with the finger of scorn.

Resolved, That the constitution and Union of the States must and shall be preserved.

Resolved, That when the Territorial Legislatures fail to protect the right of property in the Territories, and pass laws that will result in the loss of a bona fide inhabitant of any Territory to hold as private property that which is regarded and held as such by the laws of the State from which such property was transported, it is the duty of Congress by legislation, or otherwise, to protect such rights, or annul such laws.

Resolved, That when the Congress of the United States nor the Territorial Legislatures have the power to say by legislation what shall, or what shall not be held as private property by a bona fide inhabitant of any of the Territories belonging to this Union, and that which is regarded and held as private property by the laws of any State, a citizen migrating from such State to any Territory with his family, has a right to hold the same independent of any Territorial laws under the Constitution.

Resolved, That no new State should be admitted into the Union until it has a population sufficient to entitle it to one Representative in Congress, and shall apply for admittance with a constitution, and request the admission form of government not tolerating Mormonism.

Resolved, That the Mormons are a sect of disunionists, bound and leagued together for disunion and licentious purposes, and to rob and plunder for a support.

Resolved, That we approve of the principles settled by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case, and that we approve and reaffirm the political doctrines as promulgated in the Cincinnati platform of 1856.

Resolved, That the Hon. James Guthrie is our first choice for the next President of the United States, and we hereby recommend him to the favorable consideration of the Charleston Convention, and request the delegates from Kentucky to use their influence for him in the Charleston Convention.

Resolved, That the Hon. J. C. Breckinridge is our first choice for United States Senator; and as the election takes place to fill that office by the members of the next Legislature of Ky., our Representatives are requested to use their influence to vote for him and use their influence for him.

Resolved, That Judge Samuel Link and Col. C. A. Hoskins are our choice for delegates to the Charleston Convention.

Resolved, That the following be appointed as delegates to the Frankfort Convention, to be held on the 9th of January next, to wit: R. K. Hackett, Wm. W. Smith, James Eastham, Esq., J. Newcum, Esq., A. Smith, John H. Colyer, John French, B. Chestnut, Ben. R. P. Langford, Isaac Whitehead, John Reynolds, M. P. Newcum, and Dr. W. A. Brown.

Resolved, That the Frankfort Yeoman and Mountain Democrat be, and they are hereby, requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

And this meeting adjourned.

W. W. SMITH, Chairman.

JAMES EASTHAM, Secretary.

Democratic Meeting in Knox.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Knox county, held in Barlowville on Monday, the 28th day of November, 1859, on motion of John Dishman, F. P. Stickley was called to the chair, and John W. Culton was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting, and upon motion, the Chairman appointed John Dishman, Judge Parks, D. Britton, Jas. Barber, Esq., John J. Jones, and John A. Arthur, Drury Tye, and David Dishman as a committee to draft and report such resolutions as might be expressive of the sense of the meeting, who, after a short absence, reported the following resolutions.

Resolved, That we indorse the administration of James Buchanan as eminently wise, patriotic, and conservative.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the re-adoption of the Cincinnati platform by the Charleston Convention, with such other measures as the new issues may require.

Resolved, That we indorse the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case, and request the delegates to the Constitution of the United States, doing justice to all and injury to none.

Resolved, That we have unbounded confidence in the integrity, patriotism, and conservatism of the Democratic party, and are willing to support the nominee of the Charleston Convention, whether for President or Vice President, and will support the same in every way in our power.

Resolved, That we have unbounded confidence in the integrity, patriotism, and conservatism of the Democratic party, and are willing to support the nominee of the Charleston Convention, whether for President or Vice President, and will support the same in every way in our power.

Resolved, That the warmest feelings of the South are due the New York Democracy for the gallant fight they made in the last election against negro fanaticism.

Resolved, That we fully indorse and approve the course pursued by Gov. Wise, of Virginia, and President Buchanan for the prompt manner in which they have disposed of the Harper's Ferry rebellion and insurrection.

Resolved, That all the Democrats of Knox, and those who are willing to act with the Democracy in defeating the fanatical purposes of the Black Republican party, be, and are appointed delegates to the Frankfort Convention, to be held on the 9th of January next.

Resolved, That the Kentucky Yeoman, Lexington Statesman, Mountain Democrat, and all other Democratic papers be, and they are hereby, requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

After the unanimous adoption of the above resolutions, upon motion, the meeting adjourned sine die.

F. P. STICKLEY, Chairman.

JOHN W. CULTON, Secretary.

Democratic Meeting in Mercer.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Mercer county, held pursuant to public notice, at the court house, in the town of Harrodsburg, on Monday, the 7th of November, 1859.

On motion of C. C. Snedley, Esq., Jos. B. Renfro was elected Chairman, and Ber. C. Allen and Wm. E. Cleland were appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman, in a few remarks, explained the object of the meeting, and returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him in calling him to preside over the same.

On motion, the Chair appointed Wm. A. Hoot, Esq., John S. Allen, Dr. S. A. Abel, and Robert Alexander, a committee to prepare resolutions, who retired, and soon after reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we reaffirm the platform of principles which were adopted by the Democratic National Convention, held at Cincinnati, in June, 1856, as containing the true principles of the Democratic party upon all the subjects to which that platform relates.

Resolved, That we cordially indorse and approve of the doctrines stated and maintained by the Supreme Court of the United States in the decision in the Dred Scott case, and that the efforts of Abolitionists to weaken the force of that opinion, and to destroy the objects and ends of justice which it secures, are unwise, unjust, and revolutionary, and should meet with the condemnation of every patriotic citizen of our country.

Resolved, That we regard the perpetuity of the Democratic party as necessary to the preservation of the Constitution and the permanence of our glorious Union, therefore, it would be a cause of gratulation to see Democrats cease differences of sentiment and non-essential issues, and, by harmony and the cultivation of good feeling, have a union of their forces preparatory to the great political contest of 1860.

Resolved, That we approve the action of the Democratic State Committee in calling a Convention, to be held at Frankfort, on the 9th of January next.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretaries.

J. B. RENFRO, Chairman.

BEN. C. ALLEN, Wm. E. CLELAND, Secretaries.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO'S FRANKFORT, KY.

British Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine

1. SCOTT & CO. NEW YORK, continue to publish the following British Periodicals, viz:
1. The London Quarterly (Conservative).
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
3. The North British Review (Free Church).
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

These Periodicals all represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but each of them is an organ of its own character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand high in the estimation of the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar as well as the professional man, and to the intelligent reader of the current literature of the world.
